

Please do not pass any bill that would restrict my right to listen to the radio station of my choice either am, fm, or xm. I will regard any such bill as sensorship and will deeply resent it. There is already too much of the nanny state interfering in our affairs without adding to it in order to protect even more vested interests.